Gen. Eisenhower Says U.S. Nation Is Religious One

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower contends that the nation from its beginning has been "essentially a religious one."

The former president made the statement in commenting on a decision by the U.S. Supreme Court on Monday that ruled daily reading of a prayer in public schools is unconstitutional.

Eisenhower said: "I always thought that this nation was essentially a religious one."

"I realize, of course, that the Declaration of Independence antedates the Constitution, but the fact remains that the Declaration was our certificate of national birth. It specifically asserts that we as individuals possess certain rights as an endorsement from our common Creator — a religious concept."

He did not elaborate.

CLOTHING FIRM IS ORDERED TO PAY $11,271

An arbitrator has ordered the East Berlin Garment Company to pay $11,271 in damages to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union based on charges which the union filed against the firm.

Arbitrator G. Allan Dash Jr. ruled that Julius Bernstein, the owner of the firm, was in violation of an agreement with the ILGWU because he:

1. Refused to negotiate upward the piece rate and wage structure; discouraged membership in the union by direct and indirect action; failed to make contributions to the health and welfare and retirement funds and union dues.

MOST BY JULY 15

ILGWU Local 196, which formerly represented some 40 workers at the East Berlin firm by a 35-4 margin, lost a decertification election conducted by the National Labor Relations Board last December.

East Berlin Garment Company became a union shop in 1951. In handing down his decision, Dash said that $10,880 of the total $11,271 "should be paid by the employer to the union not later than July 15."

Martin Morand of Harrisburg, district manager of the ILGWU, reported the arbitrator's ruling. Bernstein has expressed dissatisfaction with the ILGWU report of the decision but declined to say if the company planned an appeal of the arbitrator's decision.

Report SAO Orders Halt To Sabotaging In Oran

ALGIERS (AP)—French authorities announced today the Oran command of the Secret Army Organization has given orders to halt sabotage in the city.

An official announcement from the French administrative headquarters at Rocher Noir said the order was broadcast over a secret army radio in Oran by ex-Col. Jean Dufour.

The broadcast reportedly called on secret army commandos to cease their scorched-earth campaign in order to facilitate the exodus of the European population to France. An oil tank fire in the Oran harbor, set by the secret army, halted sailing of refugee ships.

All normal telephone communications with Oran have been cut since a plastic bomb damaged telephone installations in the heart of the city Tuesday night. There was no possibility for the time being of verifying the government announcement.

The official announcement followed an optimistic appraisal of the situation in the west Algerian metropolis by a French official,

The flames which caused damage of $400 to $500 to the tractor had set fire to a corner of the shed when the firemen arrived. Damage to the building was slight but firemen said there was danger that the flames might have set fire to fuel storage tanks close by. No one was injured.

BARNES TALKS ON FOLKLORE AT CLUB MEET

American negroes have produced a quaint and interesting segment of the national folklore, Dr. Robert D. Barnes, associate professor of biology at Gettysburg College, told the Gettysburg Adams County Torch Club at its monthly meeting in the United Church of Christ Tuesday night.

Dr. Barnes ridiculed the idea that the negro dialects of the South corrupted Southern speech as some contend. He said that there are very few words of African origin in the dialects of the Southern negro, but rather their typical vocabulary can be traced in many instances to areas in southern England from which white slave holders migrated to America. Many of their picturesque forms of speech came down through generations to negroes of the pre-Civil War days. He cited words from the negro dialects that could be found in the speech in Yorkshire, Lancashire, Norfolk, Suffolk and Kent in England.

Animal stories were always the favorite tales among the southern negro, he said, and often had counterparts in remote countries, a fact that has baffled students of folklore. The Baltic area and Egypt produced similar folk tales as did the American Indians.

ANIMAL STORIES

"In these animal stories the weaker animal was always the hero of the tale," said Dr. Barnes. "This status symbolized the negro's own position."

The speaker said that because of the perpetual wall the negro faced during slavery he developed a "defensive technique of physical resistance and evasion — the dissatisfied look, the reluctant air, the unwilling movement, sham (Continued On Page 3)

Eisenhower Surprises 90 NEA Members Tuesday With Informal Predinner Visit

Mingled feelings of solemnity following the tour of the battlefield and the surprise and pleasure of an unexpected visit by ex-President Eisenhower were the highlights of the scheduled stop of the National Editorial Association here Tuesday.

Ninety editors and publishers, who were part of the 77th annual convention held last week at Hershey, were guests of The Gettysburg Times and the Hotel Gettysburg at a reception and dinner at the hotel Tuesday evening.

EASTERLY TOASTMASTER

General Eisenhower arrived at the hotel shortly before 7 o'clock and was immediately surrounded by the NEA members and their wives. A number had met the former President on previous occasions. As usual General Eisenhower was besieged for his autograph which he readily signed. He mingled and chatted with the group for more than a half hour, shook hands with everyone and then departed for another engagement with his military aide.

Guy Easterly, chairman of the board of the NEA and immediate past president, was the toastmaster and spoke for the group. He introduced Henry M. Scharf, president and manager of the Hotel Gettysburg.

Scharf gave a brief resume of the historical and cultural attractions of Gettysburg. He told of the network of roads that merge here, of the college and seminary, the 16,000-acre battlefield and its 2,500 memorials in bronze, stone and steel.

"It is a pleasure to have you with us tonight," he said. "We always enjoy welcoming our guests because we feel, as custodians of this great Civil War shrine, that we have a responsibility as hosts to hundreds of thousands of visitors each year."

MANY ATTRACTIONS

"We have many other attractions in our area. Our fruit industry, especially apples and cherries, is unsurpassed. The Studebaker family got its start here as wagon-makers. Our higher institutions of learning are the oldest Lutheran schools in the country and the two colleges in Emmitsburg more than 150 years old. We have had many encampments on our historic battlefield, many reunions and, of course, we had the first Tank Corps in the country, back in 1918 when it was commanded by a young and brilliant officer by the name of Captain Dwight D. Eisenhower. We have many small industries and a few that are not so small. We hope that in the course of your travels you will return soon again to see us."

GERMANY TWP. NEIGHBORS IN COURT DISPUTE

Neighbors in Germany Twp. are in court over a dispute about drains across a roadway separating their properties.

A complaint in an equity action was filed by Brown, Swope and MacPhail as counsel for John L. and Catherine G. Sweeney, Littlestown R. 1, against Emory B. and Martha F. Rickrode, Littlestown R. 1.

The complaint states that the Sweeneys own land on the west side of a road which Rickrodes' land borders on the east and the land slopes to the east. Two drains were installed but it is alleged that the "defendants or their agents" have closed drains, causing water to seep under and damage the roadway and cause the Sweeney land to become marshy.

The plaintiffs state they have asked the Rickrodes to open the drains but the latter not only have refused to open the drains but have said if the drains are opened they will be closed again. The action asks the court to direct the Rickrodes to uncover the drains and to enjoin the Rickrodes from closing the drains again.

The Rickrodes have 20 days in which to file an answer.

13 INMATES PERCHED ON WATER TOWER

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Thirteen inmates are perched on a water tower at Western State Penitentiary today in a protest over conditions at the institution.

It was anyone's guess how long they would stay there. Prison officials decided to wait them out. They are on a catwalk about 100 feet above the ground.

Six prisoners scrambled up the tower shortly after dinner Tuesday night to join a convict who had been on the tower since Monday. They had stuffed their pockets with food.

Then, with buckshot flying, six more prisoners dashed across the prison yard and up the tower a short time later.

STARTED MONDAY

The whole thing started Monday afternoon when inmate Robert Payne, 29, formerly of Washington, D.C., climbed the tower, protesting the treatment of prisoners in solitary confinement.

He said he wouldn't come down until he was assured a chance to speak with a state official.

On the tower the 13 prisoners displayed some bedsheet sewed together with this message written on it: "We are protesting brutality. Our presence (presence) is to support Payne's allegations and dispute the claim of the warden."

Warden James Maroney said that three guards fired two shot gun volleys into the air when the second group of six dashed for the tower. He said the shots were intended only as a warning.

FEARED A RIOT

For a time, prison officials spent anxious moments, fearful that a riot might develop among some 750 prisoners in a recreational area.

"Amazing as it may seem," Maroney said, "they were all very quiet."

The warden said no plans were made immediately to dislodge the prisoners from their perch.

Payne, serving a term for a parole violation, was described by Maroney as a constant troublemaker. When his current term expires in November 1969 he faces at least three more prison sentences totaling 10 to 24 years for armed robbery and jail-breaking.

Schirra Chosen Pilot For Next Space Flight With 6 Orbits Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States announced today that the next manned orbital flight will be planned for as many as six orbits, sometime later this summer, with astronaut Walter M. Schirra as the pilot.

D. Brainerd Holmes, manned space flight director of the civilian space agency, said the decision as to the specific mission — that is, how many orbits will actually be made — will depend upon many technical factors which will be evaluated constantly up to the time of flight and even during the first turns around the earth.

If the mission goes to six orbits it would involve a nine-hour flight, compared with the 4½ hours of three-orbit missions. The two U.S. orbital flights so far have been for three turns.

DRIFTING FLIGHT

The flight plan will call for considerable drifting flight to conserve fuel for re-entry maneuvering.

If the flight goes to five or six orbits it would mean landing about 300 miles northeast of Midway Island in the Pacific Ocean, although the space craft would be launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla. That is because of the rotation of the earth during the extra flight time.

A four-orbit mission would bring pains, short memory and their imaginative and verbal counterpart, the powerful "secret weapon" of the negro laugh which appeared with its cleverness and its disarming lack of understanding.

"Wit, irony and double meaning, both aggressive and defensive, have been the chief assets and attributes of Negro folklore and literature," Dr. Barnes said.

RELIGIOUS FEELING

The deep religious feeling of the southern negro of that period was analyzed by Dr. Barnes, and he paid tribute to their native resourcefulness in development of the spiritual as a means of bringing comfort in the very trying periods through which they passed. He enlivened his talk with humorous stories and quotations, some of them from the popular Uncle Remus tales of two decades ago, and he praised their author, Joel Chandler Harris, for the research that perpetuated many charming pieces of folklore.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Russell S. Rosenberger, of the college faculty.

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, retiring president of the Torch Club, presided at this final meeting of the year and turned over the gavel at its close to Dr. Barnes, who is the newly-elected president of the club. Invocation was by Rev. Dr. W. R. Sammel.

457 On Adams Relief Rolls: During the week ending June 12 Pennsylvania's direct relief rolls were reduced by 5,891 persons. A total of 419,861 persons remained on
the rolls at the end of the week.
In Adams county there were nine relief applications received. Four hundred and fifty-seven persons
remained on the relief rolls requiring expenditures of $783.60.
Of the three cases opened in the county during the week, one was because of the loss of private employment, one due to loss of works program employment and one for other reasons. Nine cases were closed due to securing of private employment and two because of works program employment.

Reichle Meat Market Sold: Oliver F. Schutt, Carlisle St., has purchased the fixtures, equip-

Meat Market, Baltimore street,
from C. E. Tawney, Springs Avenue. Mr. Tawney had conducted the business at that location for five days short of 10 years. His daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Plank, was in active management for the greater part of the time because of her father's ill health. Mrs.
Plank will continue at the shop
for several weeks. C. Reuben Bankert, a clerk, has been retained. Mr. Schutt plans to continue the shop under its present
name and will carry the same line of meats. For the last four years he has been manager of the meat department of the Baltimore
street A. and P. Store.

is an employee of the C. H. Mus-

Ancestors Of Lincoln Traced:
The greatness of Abraham Lincoln was traced to his ancestry in an address by Dr.
Louis A. Warren, director of the Lincoln National Life foundation,
before a joint dinner meeting of the members of the Gettysburg Lions and Rotary Club and persons making a Lincoln pilgrimage
from Boston to Springfield, Ill., Tuesday evening at the Eagle Hotel. Dr. Warren told of Lincoln's heritage from illustrious ancestors in the fields of statesmanship and religion. His forebears included two former governors of
two New England states in office
at the same time, leaders in politics. The family was traced to New Jersey where an evangelist
was found among the ancestors
of the Great Emancipator, and then to Pennsylvania, where leaders in state affairs were found in the Lincoln family. Virginia
forebears were religious leaders.
The Lincoln family was one of
pioneers, the speaker asserted.
They were always on the crest
of the western movement in the making of our nation. They were born on frontiers, were married
in new outlying sections and died
farther west as they led the advance of the frontiers. No one was found who was born, lived
and died in the same state. Declaring that the Lincoln family
formed a part of the higher strata
of American life for 200 years before Abraham Lincoln was born, Dr. Warren found explanation of the greatness of the Gettysburg
address and the second inaugural.

Joe Louis Wins Boxing Crown:
Joe Louis, only three years ago
an amateur, today ruled the
heavy-weight fist ranks of the world. The 23-year-old son of an Alabama cotton picker won the championship from great hearted
James J. Braddock before a clam-oring crowd of 55,000 in Comiskey
Park, Chicago, Tuesday night,
with one murderous right hand
blow that struck with the speed
of a rattlesnake. That gloved

Today's Talk

LOVE AND SACRIFICE
The significant thing about pure
pleasure is that it is so transitory.
At the height of pleasure it seems to last forever—but at that moment it always begins to fade
away.

On the other hand, take service,
unselfishness, love or sacrifice.
Each in itself is a part of the other. At the height of one's gifts
to someone else, the rarest and
realist happiness just begins.

It is at such a stage that beauty
of character blooms—waves
each of its colorful petals to the light, asserting its gladness. Love and sacrifice linger for so very long. They never quite disappear
from the earth once they have given their perfume.

The gaiety of selfishness, its gilded glamour, and its boasted
worth fade like mist before the light which is so permanent.
Such restfulness and peaceful-
ness come to the one who is always thinking of others and of
some new way to make someone else happy. I often think that "still happiness" is about the most satisfactory happiness in this world. That happiness which comes to one over and over again
as the consciousness comes that
much has been done to give happiness to others!

We can be all alone in a far
away country or peaceful place,
yet we are not alone. We are accompanied by "beautiful, tall angels" as it were, talking to us,
giving us renewed delight because
of the spots of beauty planted far
back in the years that have re-
ceded and gone from view.

The love and sacrifice of a mother or father, a brother or sister, a friend—or one deeply beloved.

As soon as we have learned to appreciate, properly, our values in life, we are not disturbed by petty
instances, by regretted mistakes,
or anything else. The larger view
and the happier vision of our hearts blot out everything else.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk
on the subject: "Rain Today—Sun Tomorrow"

still he seemed
Uncertain of his victory, as though
His right to it perhaps he never

A simple order, then to us he turned,
Saying: "This little lesson I have

Keep men afraid of you and
they'll obey.
That's why I'm standing at the

I caught a twinkle in the waiter's
eye
And knew he laughed behind his
patron's back.

I heard a flatterer answer: "Wise

But from his wife I'm sure I caught a sigh.

I thought, she knows him better

AGVA LEADER
RAP'S POLICE
AT HEARINGS

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—The head
of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) contends police
witnesses have tried to make the union a "patsy" at Senate hearings for their own failure to clean up honky tonk night spots.

Jackie Bright, administrative
secretary and operating head of the AFL-CIO union for entertainment fired back at witnesses who had denounced him and had pictured
the union as conniving with hoodlums in prostitution and other
night life rackets.

He said the Senate Investigations subcommittee's hearings
have shown that the union needs
a major housecleaning. He said that AGVA will "use downright force"
to clean up some situations.

BRANDS TESTIMONY
But he also branded some of the
testimony as a series of lies, half-
truths and misstatements "blown
up beyond all normal proportions."

Bright accepted the subcom-
tee's invitation to take a lie-detector test.

The subcommittee is working
against the clock to complete the inquiry and switch to hearings on the Billie Sol Estes case.

DO-NOTHING UNION
The subcommittee had heard
two weeks of testimony in which
some police officials and union
members described AGVA as a
do-nothing union—interested in collecting a million dollars a year
of members' dues and initiation
fees, but failing to protect girl entertainers from being forced into prostitution and drink hustling as B-girls.

Some lower echelon union officials admitted that none of them
had ever enforced union contracts
against such rackets.

Bright said he was amazed to hear such things.

He denied that any of the alleged abuses had occurred with
his knowledge or consent.

CURTIS BUCKS
GOP CUSTOMS

BOSTON (AP)—Rep. Laurence
Curtis at 68 has decided to buck
a Massachusetts Republican tradition. He will run in the September
primary against George Cabot Lodge for the party's U.S. Senate nomination.

Not since conventions were resumed in Massachusetts in 1952,
has a Republican candidate failed
to abide by the will of the convention.

The 1962 state convention 10
days ago endorsed Lodge over Curtis for the Senate but by a narrow margin, 936 to 848 votes.

NOT DECISIVE
Curtis told a news conference
Monday he does not consider his convention defeat decisive and believes the party as a whole should choose the nominee.

Lodge, 34, is the son of Henry Cabot Lodge, former United Nations ambassador and 1960 GOP
nominee for vice president.

The Democratic party's convention endorsement went to Edward
M. Kennedy, youngest brother of the President, who will have opposition in the September primary
from State Atty. Gen. Edward J.
McCormack Jr., nephew of the speaker of the U.S. House.

PRISON ESCAPEE
LOSES HIS WAY

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Robert
Demand, 29, an escapee from a Southern Michigan prison farm,
wasn't trying to hide from police Monday. He didn't know where he was either.

Demand fled Friday night in a state-owned tractor. He called state police at 1 a.m. Monday, saying he was broke, had not
eaten for three days and wanted
to surrender if police could find him.

Police asked Demand to stay on the telephone until the operator
came back on. When she did, police had her trace the call and
then sent out a car to pick up
Demand and return him to prison.
He had made only about 10 miles
and was calling from Rye Junction near here.

INVESTIGATE
COLLUSION IN
STEEL BOOST

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department has demanded
expense account and other information from steel company executives in continuing a probe into April's on-and-off steel price raise.

Informed sources said Monday
subpoenas for information from
some executives went out about
three weeks ago in connection
with department efforts to determine whether the price boost involved collusion.

The U.S. Steel Corp. said in New York that the government had subpoenaed telephone numbers
and expense account information
of some executives.

SEIZE OTHER RECORDS
The Dow Jones business news
service reported from Pittsburgh
that similar records were subpoenaed from Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Wheeling Steel Corp.
and that Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. was understood to have been served.

A grand jury investigation into
steel prices was ordered April 12
by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy
after seven companies announced $6-a-ton price increases. The inquiry continued after the hike was rescinded in the face of administration protests.

A Justice Department source
said the subpoenas were part of the continuing inquiry and do not represent any new investigation.
Kennedy declined comment.

The search into expense account
information reportedly extends back to June 1961.

A Lovelier
You

By MARY SUE MILLER
FLATTERING GLASSES. A lovely asks: Why is it that sunglasses are so much more becoming than prescription glasses?
Anyway, mine are.

For all who ponder the enigma,
this answer: Most of us girls
choose bolder shapes and colors
in sun specs than in frames for prescription glasses. And that's what accounts, in large measure,
for the divergence in flattery.

Below are tips on becoming
frames, whether for clear or dark
lenses:

1. A frame should be forthright
as to color and style. Dinky,
wishy-washy rims look apologetic.

2. The shape and size of a frame should be keyed to your facial contours. It should be as wide across as the widest part

of your face, and sufficiently narrow to expose your eyebrows.

Also the lines of the frame should run counter to a feature you could do without. For example, choose a long-oval shape if the chin is too peaked.

3. The color of frames may be
cued to your complexion or hair.
Brunet skins are complemented
by bright frames; fair complex-
ions are accented by deep pastels.

Black, dark brown and charcoal
frames become most skins. The hair is enhanced by shades of
deeper intensity than its own:
Silver hair—charcoal frames,
blond hair—topaz frames.

4. All glasses are more becoming when the eyebrows are groomed and, if necessary, darkened. With prescription glasses,
a little eye make-up makes for loveliness.

THE EYES OF YOUTH
You are not lost to youthful
beauty because of dark circles,
puffiness, or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper
skin care, cosmetic applications,
health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, THE EYES OF YOUTH. To obtain your copy,
write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158,

BRAIN FREEZE PROVES AID IN
SHAKING PALSY

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—Freeze welding in the brain is halting the uncontrolled shaking and rigidity of muscles in shaking palsy.

Brain cells causing the trouble
are frozen or welded with liquid
nitrogen at a temperature of 150
degrees below zero. The nitrogen is forced down a narrow tube
leading to the trouble spot.

The technique is painless, blood-
less, and can stop the shaking in 85 per cent of properly selected patients, Dr. Irving S. Cooper of New York City said today.

BRAIN TUMORS
The same method looks promising for destroying some brain tumors, but this work still is experimental, he told the American Medical Association's 111th annual convention. The tumors become frozen solid, and are left to shrivel
away. This may permit surgery
of tumors which cannot be reached otherwise, he said.

Dr. Cooper, of St. Barnabas Hospital for Chronic Diseases and
New York University Medical Center, devised the freeze method
within the last year for treating
shaking palsy, or Parkinson's disease.

He uses a thin cannula consisting of an inner and outer tube,
with a silver tip. This is inserted
to reach the area where brain
cells are firing off wild electrical signals.

FREEZES TIP
Liquid nitrogen forced down the
inside tube freezes the silver tip.
As the nitrogen vaporizes, it escapes up through the outer tube.

Cooling the brain for 30 seconds
at 32 degrees gives time to test
whether the silver tip is in the right place to halt the shaking. If it isn't, no harm is done. Dr.
Cooper said. If it is correctly
placed, then deep freezing for three to five minutes destroys the
guilty area to halt the tremors
and rigidity.

Some patients go home within
four days after surgery. One man, 75, was home a week later with
his shaking halted. "Many patients return to their old jobs,"
Dr. Cooper said.

The death risk is less than one per cent, Dr. Cooper said. The Public Health Service estimates
there are 300,000 persons with Parkinson's disease, and 25,000
to 43,000 new cases annually.

RESTRAIN SALE Of Paintings
NEW YORK (AP)—The E. L.
Bruce Co., Inc., has moved in State Supreme Court to restrain Rhoda Gilbert, wife of its former president, from disposing of paintings and furnishings valued at $867,784.

The company said Gilbert had
assigned the property to it to cover notes totaling $1.93 million. Gilbert fled to Brazil recently after admitting unauthorized withdraw-
als from the hardwood flooring
firm.

The company, in seeking the court injunction, said Mrs. Gilbert
already had removed valuable
paintings from their home and
had refused to turn over other art
objects and furnishings.

Justice Francis X. Conon signed
an order staying Mrs. Gilbert
from disposing of any of the property, including Gilbert's wardrobe,
pending a hearing.

BLOOM MAKES CHARGES ANEW
HARRISBURG (AP)—George
I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, said Tuesday the Democrats
are soliciting Civil Service employees to purchase tickets for a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Calling on the Civil Service Commission to advise such employees that they can not be required to purchase political tickets to retain their jobs, Bloom
added in a statement:

"We have also been advised
that when Civil Service employees
asked their supervisors what they should do about the requests to buy $100 tickets, they were advised that they should consider
the purchase of tickets as 'job insurance.'"

"In other words, this amounts
to telling these Civil Service employees that they should buy them.
This is entirely contrary to Civil Service law and the Civil Service Commission should so advise mel-
it system employees immediately."

Asked for comment on Bloom's statement, John E. James, executive director of the Civil Service Commission, said a pamphlet was mailed to all Civil Service employees Oct. 1 advising them of their rights and obligations under
the law.

The brochure also is given to
all new Civil Service employees,
James added.

Earl Wilson Beats Angels On No-hitter At Boston; Tigers Split With Indians

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With thunderbolt swiftness matching the speed of his blazing fastball, Earl Wilson has zoomed to glittering stardom from the ranks of baseball's lesser known performers.

Tuesday night at Boston's Fenway Park, the Red Sox right-hander pitched the second no-hitter of the American League season—a 2-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels. Ironically, his defeated opponent was the year's other no-hit pitcher, fun-loving southpaw Bo Belinsky, who rocketed to fame with his masterful performance over Baltimore May 5.

Wilson, a strong-armed ex-catcher from Ponchatoula, La., allowed four men to reach base on walks and struck out five as he "just threw as hard as I could all the way."

OTHER SPARKLERS

He also gave himself all the support he needed with his second home run of the year.

Although his record in seven previous seasons as a professional has been far from sensational, Wilson has been highly regarded as a potential star by the Red Sox brass. Now the tall, 220-pound Negro has shed the "potential."

Pitching also sparkled elsewhere in the league. Cleveland salvaged a one-game lead in the standings, beating Detroit 3-1 on a combined four-hitter by Bob Hartman and Gary Bell and Al Luplow's 12th-inning homer after being blanked on six hits by Jim Bunning in the opener of the doubleheader, 6-0. Camilo Pascual struck out 12 and Rich Rollins did some heavy slugging as runnerup Minnesota trimmed New York 5-0. Milt Pappas of Baltimore fired a four-hit, 1-0 victory over Chicago. Kansas City rookie Dan Pflaster won his first in the big time, edging Washington 2-1 with a six-hit performance.

UNLIKELY CANDIDATE

Like Belinsky, Wilson was an unlikely candidate for pitching stardom at season's start. He had been unimpressive in two previous short stays with the Red Sox—in 1959 and 1960—and was no better than 9-14 with Seattle of the Pacific Coast League last year.

This season the strapping, 26-year-old Louisianan had failed to go the distance in nine starts, although he had done well enough to win five of seven decisions.

Los Angeles' only real threat of a hit came in the ninth when lead-off man Billy Moran lifted a pop fly to short left which Eddie Bresnahan snared with a running, over-the-shoulder catch. Two Angels managed to reach second base after walks.

WILSON HOMER IN 3RD

Belinsky allowed just three hits in his seven innings but all three cost him. Wilson slugged his homer in the third, then singles by Pete Runnels and Carroll Hardy after an error gave Boston its second run.

Hartman made his first appearance for Cleveland since being brought up from the minors and held Detroit to three hits—including a homer and single by Bubba Morton—through 10 innings, then Bell won it by allowing a harmless single over the last two. Sam Jones was the hard-luck loser, lasting until the 12th when he gave way to Ron Nix.

Bunning also had a duel with Pedro Ramos in the first game until the seventh, when Dick McAuliffe homered with one on for the second hit off the Indian right-hander. Rocky Colavito made it a Tiger rout with a grand slam against Ramos in the eighth. Bunning struck out 10.

9 HITS IN 8 GAMES

Rollins, whose average had skidded from .360 to .328 with only three hits in his eight previous games, got rich against Yankee starter Roland Sheldon. The Minnesota third baseman smashed homers his first two trips, both times with Lenny Green on base, then had a single off Sheldon and another off Bob Turley. Pascual, winning his 11th against four losses, spaced nine hits, walked none and was at his curvballing best when it counted. He struck out Roger Maris three times and pinch hitter Mickey Mantle with the bases filled and one out in the ninth. It was the 11th loss in their last 16 games for the Yankees, who are only two percentage points ahead of the fourth-place Angels.

Baltimore won it in the last of the ninth against the White Sox and John Buzhardt when John Powell's single and two bunts loaded the bases and Charley Lau's 30-foot dribbler went for a hit. Pappas, now 8-3, pitched his fourth straight complete game.

Pflaster turned in a neat six-hitter and the lone Washington run was unearned. Manny Jimenez, the league's top batter at .346, drove in the A's deciding run with a third inning double off loser Tom Cheney.

Supreme Court's Prayer Ban May End Religious Activities In Schools

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The U. S. Supreme Court decision against the recitation of official prayers in public schools is viewed by some groups as a challenge to many types of religious observances in the schools.

These observances include Bible readings, the Lord's Prayer, Christmas carols and plays, Easter plays and other religious practices permitted in some states.

The Supreme Court declared Monday that the recitation of a nonsectarian prayer, instigated by the state, in the New Hyde Park, N.Y., schools violated the First Amendment prohibition against the establishment of any religion by the government.

NO ATTORNEYS GENERAL
Twenty attorneys general from other states told the court that the 22-word New York prayer did no violate the Constitution.

However, he New York Civil Liberties Union, which sponsored the case brought by five Long Island parents, called the decision a "milestone in the development of the guarantee of separation of church and state."

William J. Butler, the lawyer who led the attack, said the strength of the court's 6-1 opinion and the comparative mildness of the prayer add up to probable philosophy in the court against using public school facilities for any type of religious observances.

MAY END OBSERVANCES
Alan Reitman, assistant executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union, of which the New York Union is a branch, said the decision may end religious observances in all types of public schools.

A similar opinion was expressed by Leo Pfeffer, general counsel of the American Jewish Congress. Both the American Civil Liberties Union and the American Jewish Congress have opposed religious practices in the public school classroom.

Two other similar cases have been tried recently—in Abington Township, Pa., and Dade County, Fla. In both cases, parents brought suit against local school boards, objecting to the recitation of the Lord's Prayer and to the reading of the Bible.

CARE APPEALED
A special federal court in Pennsylvania declared the Abington Township requirements unconstitutional and the case was appealed to the Supreme Court. The Florida Supreme Court upheld the Dade County Board of Education. Pfeffer, who tried the Florida case, said he will appeal it.

All three school boards have argued, in line with a former Supreme Court opinion, "that we are a religious nation whose institutions presuppose the existence of a Supreme Being."

They cite the Declaration of Independence; the national motto, "In God We Trust"; the Star-Spangled Banner, and the opening

call of the Supreme Court itself, "God save this honorable court."

WILL HALT PRAYER

After the Supreme Court decision was announced Monday, New York State Education Commissioner James E. Allen announced that prayer in the public schools would be halted.

However, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he hoped that adjustments could be made in the prayer so that it could continue to be used in the schools.

Some states expressed disagreement with the Supreme Court decision.

OTHER VIEWS

The superintendent of education in Alabama, W. A. LeCroy, said he feels schools should keep religious practices "regardless of what the Supreme Court says."

South Carolina Atty. Gen. Daniel McLeod said prayers in his state are up to the classroom teachers.

He said he was in vigorous disagreement with the decision.

In Michigan, the state attorney general ruled two years ago that Bible classes may not be given in public schools—even at the lunch hour.

In Boston, Massachusetts Commissioner of Education Owen B. Kiernan said he feels the court has not ruled that Bible reading in schools is unconstitutional.

"The law of the commonwealth regarding the reading of the Bible is on the books and stands as of this moment," he said.

ULC MEETING OKS TITHING

DETROIT (AP)—Delegates of the United Lutheran Church in America approved tithing for the church's 2.5 million members in a close voice vote Monday following a heated debate.

This position is expected to be binding on the new Stewardship Department of the Lutheran Church in America, a 3.2 million-member denomination to be formed in the merger of four churches here Thursday.

The United Lutheran Church is the largest of the merging churches and its director of stewardship, Dr. Henry Endress, will head the new church's Department of Stewardship.

The other merging churches are Augustana Lutheran, Suomi (Finnish) Lutheran and American Evangelical Lutheran.

Best Big Ten scrimmage run of 1960 was turned in by Iowa's Larry Ferguson Against Ohio State. He went 91 yards.

LEMANS CHAMP WILL RETIRE AS CAR RACER

LE MANS, France (AP)—Olivier Gendebien, one of the world's premier race drivers, is retiring from a competition with a record he hopes will not stand long.

Gendebien, of Belgium, teamed with Phil Hill, Santa Monica, Calif., nursed a Ferrari to an easy victory in the 24-hour Le Mans auto race Sunday, a record fourth for the Belgian and the third for Hill.

Gendebien, 37, said he hopes Hill will quickly match his total with some other teammate.

WELL-FILLED CAREER

"I've had a well-filled career," he said, "and now I can leave a place for others. I am now the recordman for Le Mans victories, and I hope that Phil can join me on this pedestal."

Gendebien teamed with Hill in a Ferrari in winning the 1958 and 1961 tests, and he and Paul Frere of Belgium won the 1960 race.

They finished with 2,766.45 miles and an average of 115.268 miles per hour, five laps ahead of Pierre Noblet and Jean Guichet of France, also in a Ferrari. The French entry logged 2,724.739 miles and an average of 113.530 m.p.h.

Briggs Cunningham of Green Farms, Conn., and Roy Salvadori of Britain were fourth in a Jaguar; Bob Grossman of Nyack, N.J., and Glen (Fireball) Roberts, Daytona Beach, Fla., sixth in a Ferrari; and Eddie Hugus of Pittsburgh and George Reed, Midlothian, Ill., ninth in a Ferrari.

The driver, Herve Bichaton, was also fined $100 after being convicted of "homicide by imprudence."

Bichaton's car and one driven by Aly Khan collided in a Paris suburb in May 1960.

YOU'RE MAKING A BIG MISTAKE IF YOU'RE NOT DRINKING 80 PROOF GIN!

If you think higher proof means higher quality — that's a mistake.

If you think you have to pay more money to get a better gin — that's a mistake.

If you think the gin most Englishmen drink is more than 80 proof — that's a mistake.

You should know, to begin with, that America is practically the only civilized country in the world that drinks high-proof gin. The British, who perfected gin, know that gin has an ideal taste and flavor balance, and they prefer it at milder, smoother 80 proof. Here's the whole story:

80 PROOF GIN TASTES BETTER

"Proof" is no measure of quality. It's a measure of alcohol content alone. (100 proof means 50% alcohol.) Alcohol itself has no flavor. The pleasant taste of gin comes entirely from the herbs with which it's distilled.

The best test of gin is to drink it straight or on-the-rocks. You'll find 80 proof gin has the big taste advantage of 80 proof mildness — with the same full flavor of higher proof gins.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER MARTINIS

It makes them extra dry, as you like them, but not extra strong. Twenty years ago, the 3-to-1 Martini was standard. Today, with the trend to dryer Martinis, they're made 6-, 7-, even 8-to-1. As a result the modern Martini has climbed from a smooth 76.5 proof to an overwhelming 84 proof! Solution? Mix with 80 proof gin. It gives you the same full, dry gin flavor, but it returns the Martini to its original, more moderate proof.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER TALL DRINKS

When you mix a tall drink, like a Collins or a gin 'n tonic, you dilute the strength of the gin "to taste." You also mix for balance of flavor. 80 proof gin will give you better balance. You don't have to drown it to drink it.

80 PROOF GIN COSTS LESS

Gins are taxed by the U.S. on their proof or alcohol content, only. The lower the proof — the lower the taxes, and the lower the cost to you. When you buy an imported label, you add the cost of shipping and duties. That pushes the price even higher, without giving you 80 proof quality.

HOW TO MAKE DRY MARTINIS MAKE MORE SENSE

Using Standard 50 Proof Dry Vermouth	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin (or Vodka)
3 — 1 (Traditional)	76.5 Proof	68.0 Proof
5 — 1 (Dry)	81.0 Proof	72.6 Proof
8 — 1 (Extra Dry)	84.0 Proof	75.1 Proof

(The "standard" proof for today's bottled Martinis is a moderate 67.5 proof)

OLD MR. BOSTON IS THE FINEST GIN YOU CAN BUY

It's vacuum distilled at an unusually low temperature in special glass-lined stills. Only at such a low temperature, is it possible to capture the most delicate essence of the herbs. This is one reason for Old Mr. Boston's flavor distinction. It is America's first and largest-selling 80 proof Dry Gin!

PRAYER BAN STIRS SALVO OF CRITICISM

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of Congress, still firing salvos of criticism at the Supreme Court's ruling against public school prayers, have introduced amendments to the Constitution to override the decision.

But congressional leaders—and the long, tedious mechanics involved—cast doubt on the move's success.

Charges of atheism and giving aid to communism were hurled across Capitol Hill at the white marble court building by members of the legislative branch, some of whom contended the justices had taken God out of the law of the land.

While amendments to legalize classroom praying were introduced in both House and Senate, there were also demands for stronger action, including amendments to require Supreme Court justices to stand for election and giving Congress the power to overrule the court's decisions.

REMOTE POSSIBILITIES

The possibility was seen as remote, however, that any of the suggested constitutional changes could win the needed two-thirds majority in both houses and ratification by three-fourths of the states.

In the Senate, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he didn't think the proposals to put classroom prayers in the Constitution could be passed.

"The proposition of church and state is so ingrained into our people that I doubt that such an amendment would be adopted,"

CELLER'S VIEW

A similar view was expressed in the House by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who declared the court had no other choice.

"The First Amendment is well grounded in history and has served to save the United States from civil religious strife," Celler said.

The court held 6 to 1 Monday that a prayer drafted by New York's Board of Regents and recommended for recital at the beginning of each school day was "an establishment of religion" forbidden by the First Amendment. It is a nondenominational prayer and pupils whose parents objected could be excused from reciting it.

BLACK WROTE OPINION

Justice Hugo L. Black, who wrote the majority opinion, said that placing "the power, prestige and financial support of government" behind a particular form of religious observance tends to coerce religious minorities to conform.

Even those who remained non-committal about the court itself, however, expressed concern that the ruling, underscoring as it does the doctrine of separation of church and state, casts a cloud of uncertainty over a whole range of federal programs of assistance to church-supported institutions, such as hospitals, libraries and colleges.

One making a broad interpretation of the ruling was Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., who said: "One effect of the decision, in my view, is to make it clear that the Congress cannot enact legislation granting or loaning tax funds to church schools for any services other than those which pupils would need—even in the absence of their attendance from school—such as health services

RUSK THINKS RED BUILDUP IS NO THREAT

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home reportedly believe Red China's military buildup in Fukien Province does not foreshadow an attempt on the Nationalist-held offshore islands. They think it may be meant to silence Chiang Kai-shek's threats to invade the mainland.

Spokesmen said Rusk and Home reached this conclusion Monday in wide-ranging talks that paid much attention to the Communist buildup opposite the Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu, just off the Communist mainland.

In Peiping, Red China's Foreign Minister Chen Yi charged that the Nationalists are preparing with U.S. help for a large-scale invasion of the Southeast China coast. The Communists continued to shell Quemoy and Matsu Monday night, lobbing 132 shells on Quemoy and 45 on Matsu.

OTHER MEETINGS

The talks aligning British-American views on Communist threats and inter-allied problems followed Rusk's meetings with President Charles de Gaulle in Paris and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Bonn. Rusk's aides expressed belief his trip has helped clarify some misconceptions among chief allies of America over aspects of U.S. policy.

Rusk's round of talks heralded the start of a period of intensive maneuvering between the Communists and the Western powers.

The three Western Allies sent notes to Moscow Monday calling on the Soviet Union to join four-power talks in Berlin to end violence along the Berlin wall and try to bring peace to the divided city.

14-POWER PACT

Rusk and Home agreed to attend the signing next month of a 14-power pact being written at Geneva to guarantee the neutrality of Laos. If Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko also attends, it would provide an opportunity to confer anew on Berlin, disarmament, nuclear tests and other East-West problems.

Summing up the results of Rusk's trip so far, his aides said he had not come over to break up what has been called the Paris-Bonn axis because that would be against America's own interests.

He had not brought along any plan to help France's nuclear weapons program, but he gave assurances that America stands ready to help build up a multilateral European nuclear force dovetailed with American nuclear might.

Modern recipes for custard pie usually suggest testing for doneness by inserting a silver knife near the center. That's because heat will be retained after the pie comes out of the oven and finish the setting of the custard filling.

and the lunch program." Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, summed up the feeling of most members concerned about the effect of the decision on such legislation when he said, "It complicates an already confused situation."

Says Dilworth Uses People Like Pawns

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rep. William W. Scranton, Republican candidate for governor, said Tuesday night his Democratic opponent would not make a proper governor "because I think his record shows he does not care about people."

Scranton said his opponent, former Philadelphia Mayor Richard J. Dilworth, sees people "only as pawns to be shoved from place to place as he claws his way to the top of the political heap, with the help of power politicians."

"He thinks in terms of one religious group against another, one nationality against another, and one color against another," Scranton told some 400 members of the Republican Alliance at a rally.

Scranton also told the Alliance members that Dilworth had protected "grafters and corruptors" in Philadelphia as mayor and would do the same thing in Harrisburg as governor.

SENATE OPENS HEARINGS IN ESTES FRAUD

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — After weeks of detective work, the Senate opens its hearings today in the Billie Sol Estes case.

One of the first witnesses will be Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, who once declared the Estes story was being ballooned out of all proportion—and later said he regretted the remark.

The investigations subcommittee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is hunting evidence whether Estes used government influence as fuel in his skyrocket rise to the top of a multi-million dollar business empire.

VAST OPERATIONS

His vast operations — based on government cotton programs, storage of surplus grain and discount sales of fertilizer — have collapsed, leaving hundreds of creditors to search through the rubble. He is now on trial in Texas on theft charges and awaits a federal trial on fraud charges.

The Senate hearing promises to bring Freeman face to face with the subcommittee's two Republican members, who accused him Friday of trying to "get something" on them in an effort to thwart the inquiry. He denied the charge.

Agriculture Department sources said Freeman asked to be heard as one of the leadoff witnesses, and that he expected he would be "about the third man" on the witness stand.

UNDERCOVER WORK

The Senate investigation caps two months of undercover work by FBI agents, subcommittee investigators and specially recruited government lawyers and accountants. It will turn first to Estes' profitable dealings in cotton acreage allotments—and how he happened to wind up with about one third of all the acreage allotment in a national pool.

Meanwhile a House Government Operations subcommittee, headed by Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., has asked the Justice Department to look for evidence of perjury in conflicting testimony in its investigation of the Estes case.

Dallas lawyer Frank Cain told the House group Tuesday that president Maynard Wheeler of the Commercial Solvents Corp. did not tell the truth in testimony about dealings with Estes.

TEMPORARY RECESS

The House hearing has recessed temporarily. McClellan declined to give advance details of the Senate inquiry, which he has said will follow the evidence wherever it leads regardless of politics or who may be embarrassed.

But sparks were expected to fly when Sens. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., and Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., the lone GOP members of the subcommittee, get their chance to

ASK CLARITY ON WAGE LAWS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Industry officials have proposed that any new regulations adopted to implement the state's $1 an hour minimum wage law establish separate jurisdictions between federal and state law coverage.

The Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association and the National Variety Stores Association told a public hearing Tuesday before the State Minimum Wage Board that employees covered by the federal Fair Labor Standards Act be exempted from the 1961 Pennsylvania Wage Law.

The two industry organizations contended that it would be confusing to cover some workers under both federal and state minimum wage regulations.

The nine-member minimum wage board is charged with the task of adopting regulations to implement the Commonwealth statute. It will meet soon to draw its regulations based on testimony received at Tuesday's hearing. Joseph Walsh, legislative representative of the AFL-CIO, said his labor organization supports all the provisions of the minimum wage laws and the proposed regulations to implement new features.

MAY INSURE AGAINST MINE SUBSIDENCE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvanians will be able to insure their homes from $4,000 to $20,000 against mine subsidence damage, starting next week.

A law approved by the 1961 legislature establishing state insurance for homes against mine subsidence damage—a longtime financial hazard in the commonwealth's coal regions — becomes effective July 1.

The anthracite and bituminous coal mine subsidence board adopted a rate schedule and payment system tentatively Tuesday. The tentative schedule will be formally adopted by the board when the insurance law becomes effective.

RATES TO VARY

Rates will vary according to coverage and the risks involved, the board reported. The insurance will be limited to homes. Commercial buildings are not eligible for coverage.

Regardless of the risk the board must accept all applications for insurance. Presently many homes in the coal regions located over underground mine voids are uninsurable under private policies.

The 1961 legislature allocated $1 million to the board, which ultimately would be repaid to the state treasury as the insurance fund is built up by premiums.

READY IN JULY

Vincent W. Raba, Centralia, fund director, said applications will be mailed to all persons requesting them beginning next week. Later, applications will be available in field offices. Applications will be ready about mid-

July, he added. The first policies would be issued about 30 days after that.

All policies will include a $250 deductible feature. That is, the state will not pay claims for less than $250, but will cover 80 per cent of claims above that amount up to the face value of the policy. The owner would pay the remaining 20 per cent of the loss.

U.S. TRIES TO HEAD-OFF WAR IN FAR EAST

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials said today current U.S. diplomatic and military moves in the Far East are designed to forestall any possible outbreak of fighting between Red China and Nationalist China.

President Kennedy is expected to discuss the Formosa situation and the buildup of Chinese Communist forces opposite the Nationalist-held area at a news conference late today.

One question he may clarify is U.S. policy with respect to the defense of the Nationalist-held islands of Quemoy and Matsu which lie close to the Communist mainland. The policy laid down under the Eisenhower administration was that the United States would actively support the Nationalist defense of those islands only if a Red attack on them was considered to be the first step in an attack on Formosa.

FLEET UNITS SENT

The United States has sent units of the 7th Fleet into Formosan waters, possibly with the dual purpose of defending the Nationalist stronghold against any assault and at the same time discouraging the Nationalist forces from moving against the Red Chinese.

George W. Anderson Jr., chief of naval operations, said Tuesday night he foresees "no real trouble" in the Formosa Strait. He told newsmen in Las Vegas, Nev., that he doubts Red China will launch any serious attack on the offshore islands.

The United States is reported to have told Red China through its ambassador at Warsaw that this country would not support any invasion attempt by Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek.

WARNS REDS

At the same time American Ambassador John Moors Cabot is said to have warned Red Chinese Ambassador Wang Ping Nan against any Communist strike at the Chinese Nationalists.

The ambassadors discussed the Formosa Strait situation at a Warsaw meeting last Saturday. The Peiping regime began moving heavy troop reinforcements into the coastal region of Fukien Province opposite Formosa about two weeks ago. Its propagandists began a campaign accusing the United States of planning to assist a Nationalist assault on the mainland.

MAJOR KIME HITS CRITICS OF M'CARTNEY

HARRISBURG (AP) — A top state police official has questioned the motive behind criticism of the force's administration made by retired Capt. Lawrence Sapudar, former commander of Troop B at Wyoming.

"The manner in which he makes his statement at this time raises serious doubts as to his sincerity," declared Maj. John D. Kime in a statement Tuesday. Kime is chief traffic officer at regimental headquarters in Harrisburg.

Kime contended that Sapudar's criticism of State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney should have been made before Sapudar retired.

Sapudar said Monday that state police morale was at its lowest point in history. McCartney's administration, he said, has "been marked with indecision, vacillation, political expediency and vindictiveness beyond reason."

Sapudar retired last week. He was 56 and had 36 years of service with the force.

McCartney said Monday night he defied Sapudar to prove any of his charges and claimed his men are doing a better job today than ever before.

Kime commented on Sapudar's charge that McCartney encouraged competition among his troops to make radar speeding arrests. He said:

"This department," he said, "has never set a quota for traffic arrests, any more than it does for criminal arrests. We are not concerned with the quantity of arrests made by personnel of this department. We are concerned with quality. Our patrols are under orders to work in areas of high accident frequency, not where traffic arrests are easiest to make."

PUNCHBOARDS SEIZED IN YORK

YORK, Pa. (AP)—State police seized 4,000 punchboards and 10 gambling machines when they raided the home of Richard T. Forry, 50, in York Tuesday night.

Cpl. Alfred J. Corkran, who led the eight-man raiding squad, said the gambling devices were located in the basement of Forry's house. Forry was held for questioning.

Capt. Richard D. Gray, commanding officer of State Police Troop A, Harrisburg, said Forry's home was raided after his name came up during a raid by Internal Revenue agents in Chicago who captured millions of dollars worth of punchboards.

DIES OF INJURIES

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A 59-year-old York County woman died Tuesday at York Hospital of injuries suffered in an industrial accident last Friday. She was Mrs. Mary Irene Matthews, of Hellam R. I. Authorities said she was injured when pulled into a wrapping machine at Tioga Textile Associates, Inc., York, where she was employed.

INDICTED BY FEDERAL JURY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Matthew Whitaker, operator of a cigar store in Pottsville, Pa., has been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of violating interstate gambling laws.

Whitaker has been arrested frequently on gambling charges, but never has been convicted, according to authorities.

He was arrested by the FBI in March on charges of interstate transmission of wagering information.

Whitaker's indictment Tuesday was the first in a months-long investigation of gambling in Schuylkill county. The probe followed testimony last summer before a U.S. Senate subcommittee that Pottsville ranked with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh as a center of illegal race "layoff" betting.

Placed in evidence was a map of the United States showing a pattern of calls made by gamblers in placing bets and exchanging information. Pottsville and Whitaker were listed on the map.
